The Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission and the West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection will hold a press conference at 3 pm on Tuesday, October 8, on the Charleston Riverfront. The conference will be in front of ORSANCO's mobile aquarium "Life Below the Waterline," to discuss water quality improvements in the Kanawha River.

Speaking at the conference will be Randy Huffman, Director of West Virginia DEP, the Honorable Mayor of Charleston Danny Jones and outdoor writer John McCoy, along with Peter Tennant, Executive Director of ORSANCO.

The ORSANCO aquarium will feature aquatic life caught on Monday night in the Kanawha River and will be on display until Wednesday evening.

ORSANCO is in Charleston for its annual Commission meeting which will be held at 9 am Thursday, Oct. 10 at the Charleston Marriott. The public is welcome to attend.

ORSANCO is the water pollution control agency for the Ohio River and its tributaries.
